

GETTING SET FOR YOUR Sacrifice @ SHILOH 2025

Shiloh, the annual convocation of the Winners' family worldwide is a platform for diverse encounters with God, both as a church and as individuals.

This annual convocation was prophetically birthed by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost from the book of Joshua 18:1 – “And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.”

We also saw from scriptures, how the Lord appeared again in Shiloh unto Samuel by the word of the Lord — 1 Sam. 3:21

Shiloh is, therefore, a platform for diverse encounters with the word for our desired turnarounds — Psa. 105:17-22

But apart from encounters with the Word and answers to prayers, there are two other avenues through which we encounter God at Shiloh:

- First, through the altar of sacrifice as here indicated – “And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to (Shiloh) offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.” — 1Sam. 1:21
- Secondly, through the making of Vows as stated concerning Hannah “And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life.”

— 1 Sam. 1:11/24

➤ From above, a sacrifice or a vow is all about meeting our needs not God’s needs or the needs of a church — 1Kgs. 3:3-12/Ps. 50:14

We also understand that the altar of sacrifice is the altar of supernatural turnarounds as in the case of Abraham — Gen. 22:16-18/Psa. 126:1-6

Everyone is thereby admonished to get ready for the annual Shiloh Sacrifice, as each one is able and purposes in his heart — Deut. 16:16-17

But we must also understand that what makes a sacrifice is not the volume of what is offered, but the cost of such to the individual — 2 Sam 24:24-25

In the same vein, vows carry powerful turnaround virtues. As it is written; “Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice; and the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself.” — Psa. 50:5-6.

Therefore, while a sacrifice is what we engage in for a turnaround, a vow, on the other hand is our demand for divine interventions in any area(s) of our lives.

As the Psalmist said “Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place. I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows — Psa.66:12-13.

Therefore, get ready for access to your realms of supernatural turnaround encounters at Shiloh 2025 as you take advantage of the altar of sacrifice and vows for your desired turnarounds!

Jesus is Lord!
